"Our general register plan will do away with this lack of system and will put our charitable work on a solid, business-like basis. By reference to it we shall know just who has been helped, when, how many times, twice in a day when that person is not in need of aid; there will be no wasting money on the undeserving and slighting those who deserve our time and charity.

"It is planned by our general register system to appoint a committee made up of representatives from the various organizations whose business it shall be to take charge of this regi ister. The register will be kept at the Associated Charities office and will contain the name of levery person helped by every society. Notice to Be Given.

"Every day each society will re ceive a copy of the general register tered and every time a society gives aid to an individual or family, it will inform the committee of this and will send in the name of the person or family helped.
